

University College Presents Movie Night On the Quad

8:30 p.m. Friday, July 25
(movie starts at 9:00)

A free event for Syracuse University employees and registered summer students! Bring your blankets and lawn chairs to the Quad to get a good seat for the 2008 movie 21, starring Kevin Spacey, Kate Bosworth, and Lawrence Fishburne.

The first 100 moviegoers will get a prize!

Then, show your SU I.D. for free popcorn and a soda.

This event is not open to the general public.

Rain Plan: The movie will be held in Gifford Auditorium of the HBC building. For more information, call University College at 443-3527.

Featured Film

About 21

This film is the true story of six MIT students who were trained by their professor to become experts in card counting. They subsequently took Vegas casinos for millions. Ben Campbell, the most gifted of the students, started playing just to pay his school bills, but got caught up in the game. He wanted to lead the team instead of taking orders in this high-stakes drama.

University College is SU's home for summer studies.
For information on other summer events at SU, call 443-YesU.